Biographical sketch	Mary Cornwall Tippett was Francis William and Wilma Cornwall's daughter. Francis came to play hockey in Minnedosa in 1912 and in 1918 he married Wilhelmina Black of Minnedosa. Mary's father operated a hardware store kitty corner to the town office building which was once the post office. After graduating high school in Minnedosa, Mary moved to Winnipeg to go to business college where she then worked until Sept 1967. It was in Winnipeg where she met and married Godfrey Tippett. Together they had four children. Their retirement years were spent in Ottawa, Ontario.
Scope & content	The collection consists of 16 post cards of Minnedosa and RMNP.
Custodial history	The collection was created and donated by Mary Tippett.
Source of title	Title based on the contents of the fonds.
