

Title and statement of responsibility area

Title proper	Canadian Red Cross Bulletin 1916 Manitoba Branch fonds
Level of description	Fonds
Repository	Minnedosa Regional Archives

Dates of creation area

Date(s)	1916
---------	------

Physical description area

Physical description	.5 mm of textual
----------------------	------------------

Archival description area

Administrative history	The Canadian Red Cross during the First World War established Canada as a leading wartime humanitarian aid societies. Large donations of money, clothing, bedding, bandages and food was contributed for the soldiers, POW's and civilians returning to their devastated homelands in Europe after Armistice Day.
Scope & content	The collection contains a 1916 bulletin which list all communities and their donations made to the Red Cross for the war efforts.
Custodial history	This bulletin was donated by Jim Kingdon, other custodial information is not available.
Source of title	Title based on the contents of the fonds.

Notes area

Restrictions on access	There are no restrictions on access.
Accruals	Further accruals are not expected.
Language of material	English